

Grace Notes

As we continue to learn to pray from the Psalms, this month we turn to Psalm 146. Let's consider it together here.

Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD, O my soul! I will praise the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being! The Hebrew word that begins and ends Psalm 146 is known to us in English: "Hallelujah!" Both this Hebrew loan word and its Greek counterpart, "Alleluia!" mean "Praise the LORD!" Psalm 146 calls upon us to praise the LORD because He alone gives us life now and eternally. The phrase "while I have my being" reminds us of the fact that our being continues will continue forever because the true God will raise us from the dead.

Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man in whom there is no salvation. When his breath departs, he returns to the earth; on that very day his plans perish. In contrast to the LORD stand earthly authorities. Our trust does not belong to them because, unlike the true God, they are mortal. Throughout history, kings, emperors, and presidents have made their plans. Senates and parliaments have drafted and passed legislation. Yet every single earthly ruler has died or will one day die, no matter how grand their plans. The same is true for all human help; it never lasts forever. Only the true God endures to eternity; therefore, we trust in Him.

Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, who keeps faith forever; who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry. Any blessings that come from earthy rulers or human help are temporary, but the blessings that come from the Triune God are eternal. He is the Creator and Preserver of all things. He keeps all His promises and does not forget those who are in need. Those who hope in Him will not be disappointed; they are blessed because they receive His promised help.

The LORD sets the prisoners free; the LORD opens the eyes of the blind. The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down; the LORD loves the righteous. The LORD watches over the sojourner; he upholds the widow and the fatherless, but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin. As we continue to praise the LORD in Psalm 146, we once again focus on the way He helps those most in need. The prisoners, the blind, the bowed down, the traveler, the widow, and the orphan all look to the LORD for help, and He brings deliverance. Notice that "the righteous" are mentioned among this group. This is a reminder that the righteousness we have as Christians is not by our own doing; we are not righteous because we have perfectly obeyed God's Law. Instead, our righteousness comes completely as a gift. Though we are sinners, yet God declares us righteous by His grace for the sake of Jesus Christ.

The LORD will reign forever, your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise the LORD! Psalm 146 summarizes our praises to God in this last verse. The true God is the King over all. All authority in heaven and on earth belongs to Jesus (Mathew 28:18-20). He uses that authority for the good of His Church, for He is our Brother. Jesus' ascension to the Father's right hand is a constant reminder of this comforting truth.

From beginning to end, Psalm 146 leads us to praise the Triune God for His salvation that leads us to eternal life. No earthly authority, no human help, and no idol can make and keep such a promise. The song of Psalm 146 remains ours today: "Hallelujah! Praise the LORD!"

In Christ,
Pastor Appel

Opportunities to Receive God's Gifts

When you are not able to make it to the weekly Divine Service on a regular basis, please know that opportunities to receive the gifts of God at other times are available. I encourage you to be in touch with me to let me know how I can deliver these gifts of God to you, because no Christian should go without God's gifts in Word and Sacrament. When circumstances do not allow you to join the congregation for a time, I certainly encourage you to make use of the Facebook livestream to hear the Scriptures and the sermon; I also would welcome the opportunity to set an appointment with you to study God's Word with you and bring you the Body and Blood of Jesus on an individual basis. This offer is made in earnest. You are not imposing on my time by requesting this of me; this is precisely why God has given time to me. Please let me know how I can best serve you in Christ's name! –Pastor Appel

We have decided to bring Sunday School back each Sunday before church services. We are looking for volunteers to help teach our youth the precious word of our Lord and Savior. If you are interested even if it would be to co-teach with someone, please contact a board member.

We will have a rally day the last Sunday in August and Early Sunday School will start the first Sunday in September. Watch for details.

The Board has chosen our next Sunday School Mission to be the Bastrop County Pregnancy Resource Center. We would like to invite everyone to contribute to the Sunday School offering for this very worthy mission. There are envelopes on the Board of Ed Bulletin Board for anyone who would like to contribute to our Mission.

Mercy Medical Care for Tanzania — $68,182

Mwadi Lutheran School in Shinyanga, Tanzania, has become one of the leading schools in the region with enrollment increasing from 40 to over 200 students. It is educating many new pastors, teachers, and professionals from all over western Tanzania using a curriculum with a Christian world view and daily chapel. This educational facility has become a valuable Christian outreach ministry to the community and region. However, malaria and other health issues continue to be a vexing problem for the students, teachers, staff, and community. The next step in enhancing this educational facility is starting a medical clinic. This grant will purchase medical equipment, medical supplies, and medicine to treat the various illnesses of the student community in the Southeast of Lake Victoria Diocese of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Tanzania (SELVD-ELCT).

The Widow's Mite --- And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on." Mark 12:42-44 ESV
