

Grace Notes

As we turn the calendar from December to January once more, Psalm 90 is helpful for us to approach the new year and receive it as a gift from His grace and mercy. Since we won't take a look at every single verse in this article, I encourage you to pause your reading right here, pray all of Psalm 90, and then come back to consider select verses with me.

Now that you're back, let's start with the superscription of the Psalm: "A prayer of Moses, the man of God." Although Moses was no stranger to leading the people of Israel in singing in worship (see Exodus 15), Psalm 90 is the only one in the Psalter attributed to the greatest prophet of the Old Testament. Although no particular situation is specified, any number of events in Moses' life could have led him to this prayer reflecting the brevity of man's life in the face of God's eternal nature.

Psalm 90 begins in the context of trust: "Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations." Right away, we see why this is an appropriate prayer for a new year. Just as the one true God has been the refuge for us and all His people since time began, so He will continue to be our refuge in all of the unknowns of this new year. This is our confidence along with Moses because God always has been, always is, and always will be God: "Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God."

As Moses meditates upon God's eternal nature, he can't help but see just how temporary his own human life is; we must recognize this truth with him. This truth runs throughout Psalm 90, but Moses pictures it most vividly and eloquently in verse 10: "The years of our life are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty; yet their span is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away." Once again, this is appropriate reflection at the start of a new year. You may have already surpassed the number of years Moses mentions here; certainly that reality ought to cause great joy and thanksgiving to the one true God and bring about a hearty desire to do that which pleases Him in however many more years He chooses to give.

Moses' reflection not only recognizes that human life ends very quickly. He also recognizes that our death comes about because of our sin, and in our sin, we deserve it. Moses prays in verses 7-8: "For we are brought to an end by your anger; by your wrath we are dismayed. You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence." In the same way, as we see how fleeting our own lives are, God grants us opportunity for repentance. Knowing that we are not guaranteed to see the end of 2022 as we have now seen the end of 2021, we take time at the start of this new year for self-examination, confession of sins, and repentance before the eternal God.

Moses' prayer does not leave us without hope. Even in his sin, he knows that his only hope is the LORD. He pleads in that hope in verses 13-14, "Return O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants! Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days." In that same hope, we pray to the one true God at the start of this new year. We have experienced the steadfast love of the LORD through our recent celebration of the birth of Jesus at Christmas, and we know that each week in the Divine Service, this same Jesus comes to us in Word and Sacrament with His forgiveness.

In these ways and more, Psalm 90 is a fantastic prayer for the beginning of this new year. Before you finish reading this article, go back and pray it once more. God grant to each of us the same repentance and faith as Moses had, so that our God would teach us to number our days and, in His grace, establish the work of our hands!

In Christ,
Pastor Appel

Opportunities to Receive God's Gifts

When you are not able to make it to the weekly Divine Service on a regular basis, please know that opportunities to receive the gifts of God at other times are available. I encourage you to be in touch with me to let me know how I can deliver these gifts of God to you, because no Christian should go without God's gifts in Word and Sacrament. When circumstances do not allow you to join the congregation for a time, I certainly encourage you to make use of the Facebook livestream to hear the Scriptures and the sermon; I also would welcome the opportunity to set an appointment with you to study God's Word with you and bring you the Body and Blood of Jesus on an individual basis. This offer is made in earnest. You are not imposing on my time by requesting this of me; this is precisely why God has given time to me. Please let me know how I can best serve you in Christ's name! –Pastor Appel

We want to work together ever more effectively in each of our congregations. There'll have different presenters, topics, etc., and the plan is to end the day with a hymn sing. Please do set 04/30/22 aside and ask your music staff to do the same. Questions can be directed to Pastor Bernie Schey of Trinity, Dime Box (254-368-0261). ### Making the Next Generation of Disciples for Life — $92,000

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations" (Jeremiah 1:5). The sanctity of life created by God, and the family as God designed it, has been under attack by pro-choice organizations who are expanding their movement to reach children of younger ages, to attack chastity and promote promiscuity, and to influence our children causing devaluation of life, marriage, and the family. The continued development of "Life" curricula is one of the most frequent requests by LCMS schools. With this grant, LCMS Life Ministry will build a set of developmentally appropriate resources and curriculum for early childhood, young children, and elementary-aged children and their families.

The Widow's Mite --- And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on." Mark 12:42-44 ESV
