

Grace Notes

Our monthly journey through God's gift of prayer continues this month into the 4th and 5th Petitions of the Lord's Prayer: "Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." Let's consider these petitions one at a time.

The 4th Petition serves as a transition within the Lord's Prayer. On the one hand, the 4th Petition is similar to the three petitions that came before it: the 4th Petition asks for something that God accomplishes apart from our prayers. Think of all the unbelievers in this world who have never once asked God for anything. Even without their prayers, God still gives them what they need for this life. Jesus says in Matthew 5:45, "[Your Father] makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust." When Jesus gives us the 4th Petition to pray, then, He does so in order that we might recognize God as the source of all that we need for this life and render Him the thanks due His name.

On the other hand, whereas the first three petitions primarily focus our eyes upward on the things of God and eternal life, the 4th Petition focuses our eyes on the needs of this life. One of the amazing truths of the 4th Petition is that God cares about this life. He created us body and soul, and so He cares for us body and soul. The needs of this life are very much His concern, and we should never be ashamed to pray concerning these needs. God wants to hear our prayers concerning this life; we should not think of our bodily needs as insignificant before God. We should cry out to Him in our sickness. We should cry out to Him for good weather. We should give thanks to Him for good government. We should praise Him for faithful friends and family. Though the world may scoff at such prayers as not sounding very "spiritual," we should have no doubt that these are God-pleasing prayers that He hears and answers for our good.

It is also worthy of our attention that Jesus teaches us to pray for daily bread. Such a prayer teaches trust in our Father's provision. Even if we cannot see where we will get everything we need for tomorrow, God does, and He teaches us to pray in that trust. As Jesus says in Matthew 6:34, "Do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself." We should also notice that Jesus teaches us to pray for our daily bread. Through this prayer, Jesus brings our neighbor's need to our mind, so that when our daily bread is overabundant, we are moved by the Holy Spirit to share with those who are in need.

The 5th Petition turns our attention to a reality that Christians know and feel on a regular basis: we are sinners. The sinfulness of all humanity is a clear teaching of God's Word, and the consequences for our sins are equally clear in Holy Scripture: "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). "The wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). Having prayed for incredible gifts in the first four petitions, our thoughts in the 5th Petition now recall that we deserve none of those gifts. We must throw ourselves upon the mercy of God, and that is what we do. We know that we cannot pay the debt of our sin; instead, God must forgive it (Matthew 18:27). That is precisely the confidence that we have in Christ. Because of Jesus' sinless life, death, and resurrection, God has given us His forgiveness.

What do we do with that forgiveness? It cannot and does not leave us unchanged. Unlike the unmerciful servant in Jesus' parable (Matthew 18:23-35), God has given to us to recognize the enormity of the sin He has forgiven us. In comparison, the sins others commit against us seem miniscule, and there is no other thing to do than to forgive. What has been freely given to us, we freely give to others. No doubt, this is often one of the most humanly difficult things to do on this side of eternity, for the sins other commit against us are often quite painful and leave lasting scars. Only by the power of the Holy Spirit, given precisely to those who pray the Lord's Prayer, are we able to forgive those who sin against us. This is one of the most profound gifts that Christians have to share with one another and the world.

God grant us the joy of praying these two petitions of the Lord's Prayer, that we would receive our daily bread with thanksgiving, rejoice in the forgiveness Christ has won for us, and freely share that gift with everyone.

In Christ,
Pastor Appel

When circumstances do not allow you to join the congregation for a time, I certainly encourage you to make use of the Facebook livestream to hear the Scriptures and the sermon; I also would welcome the opportunity to set an appointment with you to study God's Word with you and bring you the Body and Blood of Jesus on an individual basis. This offer is made in earnest. Pastoral Check-Up

Many go to their doctor regularly to check on their physical health; why not do the same with your pastor concerning your spiritual health? I know that the previous year was difficult in many respects. How has your Christian faith been challenged? How has your Christian faith grown? Let's visit! The precautions of a pandemic aren't so great that a pastoral visit is impossible. Let's find some time to talk so that I can minister to you with the Word of God so that your faith in Christ will grow even in the midst of this life's troubles and trials.

Wishing these Friends a Happy Birthday! from your "Grace" family

If your birthday or anniversary does not appear correctly, please contact the church office so we can correct our files. Thank you.

Dear Members of Grace Lutheran Church,

The Board of Education is proud to say that we were able to award a $400.00 scholarship to a member of Grace Lutheran that is attending a Lutheran School.

It is the time of year when we are all looking for tax deductions, just a reminder that any donation to our scholarship fund, either the Endowment fund or directly to a scholarship fund at Grace is tax deductible. If you have any questions regarding this, please feel free to contact Pastor or a board member and we will be glad to help you in any way we can. The generosity of scholarship has been able to help our young members further their education in a caring Christian setting.

Pastor will be starting his confirmation class soon, but we will hold off on midweek at this time because of the Covid virus still being such an issue.

We would like to invite everyone to attend Sunday School or Adult Bible Study each Sunday. Adult Bible study is at 8:45 and Sunday school starts as close to 11:00am as possible. Directly after the Church Service. It is truly exciting to see Adult Bible Study back and to see and hear the ones that are attending enjoy it the way they do. We will be collecting an offering each Sunday at Sunday School that will go to a missionary. Both groups seem to be going well and everyone is enjoying their study time with and about GOD. We look forward to what the new school year will bring and pray everyone will stay healthy. If you have any comments or suggestions you may have regarding Sunday School or adult Bible study, please contact any board member.

With School about to start and COVID still lingering, it is a trying time for everyone. We pray that God will guide us in the direction that most people will benefit and keep us all safe at the same time.

Our Board members for this year are: Charlie Johannessen, Toni Ann Kadlecek, Kathy Kasper, Mary Lou Oliver, Melissa Brown, June Parker, Barb Johannessen and the Sunday School Superintendent is Donna Zimmerhanel. Please feel free to contact any of us at any time if you have questions.

May God Bless all of you.

Respectfully,
Barb Johannessen

LWML Sunday is traditional held on the first Sunday in October.
This year the theme is "Our Hearts in His Hand" 1 Peter 4:8

The heart of the LWML is its members; our hearts have been made holy by God. We are fully dedicated to serving Him, by serving His Church at home & abroad. Our hearts for Christ are in His hand of service, wherever and when He has need of us.

The Widow's Mite --- And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on." Mark 12:42-44 ESV
